An efficient approach for figuring out a value is to ship out a survey to your current customers. If these prospects have already purchased an e-book from you, ask for their opinion in terms of price.

Do that by making a sales page for the new ebook, but do not embody a price on that page. As an alternative, add various hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other technique is to test out prices by making a number of duplicate sales pages with totally different costs on every page. Be sure your sales copy is exactly the same on each web page, and includes your promoting-deal with sentence. Then figure out for each web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your web site and gross sales of your book. It will inform you what your optimum price is.

Ultimately, for those who've written a e book that solves a problem or presents a new technique, your guide will bring in both site visitors and profits. So you'll want to write that promoting-deal with sentence that sums up what drawback your book solves and what the advantages of your 1770 guide will be to the shoppers who purchase it.
